COURSE INFORMATION

Format: 16 weeks

Course ID: ENGL 1323

Course Title: English Composition II

College: Steelman Library

Prerequisites: ENGL 1223 English Composition I

Credit Hours: 3

Instructor: See the online course in MyFIRE for instructor contact information and availability.

Course Description

This course develops skills in writing the major types of composition such as description, narration, example, analysis, definition, classification, comparison/contrast and cause/effect. Students will practice techniques needed in writing reports and learn basic library skills used in research

This course is delivered entirely online, through the learning management system MyFIRE in conjunction with the Institute for Excellence in Writing Structure and Style for Students Year 1, and Fix-It! Grammar: Level 5 integrated into Canvas. All IEW readings and all the assignments will be accessed through BrightSpace Modules.

This is an asynchronous course as there will be no live instruction. While you will have the ability and freedom to complete the work at your own pace, there will be assigned deadlines that you must meet. Be aware that your attendance depends on completing at least one assignment each week; to do good work in this asynchronous setting, you need to be highly motivated and disciplined

Course Materials

REQUIRED Materials:

1. Structure and Style for Students: Year 1 Level C Basic Plus [Forever Streaming or DVD] $189.00. ISBN: Streaming: 978-1-62341-523-5, DVDs: 978-1-62341-526-6
2. Notebooks and writing tools.
3. A good thesaurus and a dictionary

* Further instructions for accessing IEW will be posted on MyFIRE.

Intended Learning Outcomes

As a result of reading, study, and assessments in this course, the student will be able to:

- Compose advanced essays in a variety of styles, using thesis statements and evidence.
- Discover and evaluate information from a variety of sources, and then apply those sources to their original written work.
- Engage multiple perspectives on a single topic.
- Write in a structure and style that is pleasing, clear, and well.
- Compose papers free from plagiarism, using proper in text citation and works cited formatting.

Late Work

Late Assignments will not be accepted. Students who request an extension must do so AT LEAST 48 HOURS BEFORE THE ASSIGNMENT is due. Extensions will be granted at the instructor's discretion.

Assessments

Written Assignments will typically be returned to students within two weeks of being turned in.

Formal Essays: All the essays listed under Course Requirements will have detailed directions. You will be provided IEW checklists/rubrics. They will follow the guidelines outlined in the directions in terms of length and genre. To prepare your essays, I will make myself available for individual conferences and you will also get help through the Peer Review process.

Note: In order to pass this course, you will need to turn in and get a passing grade in ALL formal essays.

Grammar assignments: All your grammar assignments will be from IEW Fix-It Grammar.

Discussions: Both reading discussions and peer review discussions are meant to help you understand our assignments and develop your communication skills. Some of your discussions will be done through the Peer Review process and some will be posted on Canvas
